MRS. Peggy Swan

I would like to say that I don't take my crime likely. I take full responsibility for what I done. I don't make any accuses for what I did. I was angry at the world and didn't care about life. I was at a point that I didn't care if I lived or died. At this time I was dealing with rejection from family and friends. I felt I was used not loved, alone, with no value.

Today I have God, He's my everything. I was a child of the world, Today I'm a man of God. I don't complaint about being sent to prison, I did my crime and was punished for it. All I wish is to have another chance, I believe I can tell my life story and keep others out of prison.

Thank - you
Paul Julien
