

Peg,

Hi, how are you? Hopefully you are fine in great health, and your husband is Blessed in his struggles. I received your package some time ago and I am so grateful! Thank you! I haven't written because I am in a Bad place spirit and emotion-wise, and because I am not sure where my next package of envelopes will come from, if any. No one writes me besides my mom every now and then. Some days I let the lack of support get me down so low. Every envelope counts so I've been holding on to the 5 ~~$~~ I have left, minus this one. I tried reaching out to a few people to rally up some supporters, but no luck. That's my only hope meeting someone new willing to correspond with me as a perpal. No one from my past values me or even cares. Some guys told me about a perpal site that's successful, but it's a $50 fee to get on. Obviously I don't have 50 Bucks. I'm trying to come up with a solution but options are few. Being in the hole 6 months and I

Counting doesn't help things.

Do you know of anyone willing to confer with me to help pass the time? I won't make you regret introducing me to anyone. I feel so alone and rejected it's staggering. I wait everyday for mail delivery like a post office to be disappointed day after day. I have to make New Friends on this time away will get worse. Anything more you can do to help is both welcomed and a blessing. Thanks again for everything!

I know you don't have the time to write more often, and that you help as many inmates.

Sometimes I just can't help but wonder if I was that bad of a guard, brother, cousin, uncle, etc for them all to abandon me.

Take care and stay warm!
