Hello

Thank you for receiving my request. I have a friend here that showed me your news letter and gave me your address if you could please include me on your mailing list also any other resource you may have I am a widower with no family here that can help me. I have tried reaching out to churches in Racine to no avail do you have a list of churches or someone that can help I still have 23 months to do, and not too many stamps left to go here's my info
